Driscoll's: Growing the Finest Organic Berries

Driscoll's is passionate about growing delicious berries. With Driscoll's organic berries, you can be confident that you are enjoying the finest—great tasting berries, loaded with vitamins, good for the planet.

Driscoll's organic berries are USDA Certified Organic, which means they are grown without the use of synthetic fertilizers or pesticides, and all Driscoll's berries are GMO-free. They use natural breeding and continually meet the highest standards for taste, quality and disease resistance.

They are proud to work with independent organic growers who share their commitment to sustainable growing practices. These family run farms rely on farming techniques that build soil health, enhance ecological balance and yield exceptional taste.

Boston Baked Beans

Baked beans are a classic summer barbecue side. This is an updated healthier version. We've eliminated the bacon and all that saturated fat. Natural maple syrup replaces the sugar; give these a try. Beans are incredibly healthy: high in protein and dietary fiber, low in fat, calories and sodium, and completely cholesterol-free.

- 4 15 oz. cans red beans, rinsed and drained
- 1 ¾ cups chopped onion
- 1 cup ketchup
- 1/3 cup pure maple syrup
- ¼ cup apple cider vinegar
- ¼ cup dry mustard
- 2 tablespoons mild-flavored (light) molasses
- 2 bay leaves
- 1 ½ tablespoons finely chopped garlic
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon ground pepper

Preheat oven to 350 F. In a large pot add beans and all remaining ingredients. Bring to boil. Transfer pot to oven. Bake uncovered until beans are tender and liquid thickens, stirring occasionally, 3 to 4 hours. (Recipe can be made 1 day ahead. Cover and chill. Bring beans to simmer before serving). Serves 8.

Fastest Barbecued Chicken

6 tablespoons dark brown sugar
 1/2 tablespoon chile powder
 2 teaspoons dry mustard
 Kosher salt
 8 boneless, skinless chicken breasts or thighs
 3/4 cup tomato ketchup
 1/4 cup low salt soy sauce
 1/4 cup cider vinegar
 1 tablespoon Dijon mustard
 1/2 teaspoon hot sauce

Heat a gas grill between medium and medium high. In a small bowl, combine 2 tbsp. brown sugar, chile powder, dry mustard and 1 tbsp. salt. Rub the spice mix over chicken.

In a small saucepan, whisk the remaining brown sugar with ketchup, soy sauce, vinegar and Dijon mustard. Bring to a boil. Lower heat and simmer, stirring frequently, until sugar dissolves. Remove from heat and cool slightly. Add a pinch of salt, if needed. Stir in the hot sauce.

Place chicken on grill, cover, and cook until meat turns a deep reddish brown, 4 to 5 minutes. Turn the chicken and continue to cook until the meat is firm and deeply colored, 3-4 minutes. Brush a generous amount of sauce over the chicken, cook 1 minute, turn, brush with sauce, cook 1 minute. Arrange on a platter and serve with any remaining sauce. Serves 8.

Garden of Life Vitamin Code

Vitamin Code is a line of raw, whole food multivitamin and mineral supplements with age and gender specific formulas. Each Vitamin Code formula contains nutrient cofactors or "nutritional synergists" like bioflavonoids, enzymes, SOD, beta glucans and CoQ10 that are found in whole fruits and vegetables. NO chemically extracted ingredients, binders, fillers, synthetic vitamins, artificial colors, flavors or sweeteners. Vitamin Code Multis are everything you want in a true raw whole food multi and nothing you don't want!

NEWCHAPTER Organics

Organic Herbs and Vegetables. Probiotic. Whole-Food Complexed. Formulated for your optimal health—not just to address nutrient deficiencies.

Formulated for the Prime of Your Life

One Daily 40+ formulas feature condition-specific full-spectrum herbal blends to support critical areas of health. For example, six whole-food complexed B Vitamins and whole foods like organic oregano and fenugreek support heart and eye health.* We include energizing organic maca and schizandra to help address stress.* We also include a targeted blend of organic peppermint and aloe that helps maintain healthy digestion.*

Quality, Whole-Food Complex

New Chapter's One Daily 40+ multis are not megadoses like some supplements that have % Daily Values in the thousands. More doesn't necessarily mean better! We deliver safe and sound potencies of nutrients at optimal levels. Because our nutrients are cultured in a matrix of organic foods and live probiotics, they are biotransformed into whole-food complexes for your body's greatest benefit—active, easily digested, and easily absorbed.
